

Building Next Generation Movement Leaders and Organizations in South Asia for Young People's SRHR in Bangladesh-Phase II

Bandhu has been awarded 'Building Next Generation Movement Leaders and Organizations in South Asia for Young People's SRHR in Bangladesh-Phase II' project by Asian-Pacific Resource and Research Center for Women (ARROW). One of the major interventions of the project is to train the young gender diverse youth leaders on Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) and Comprehensive Sexuality Education (CSE). So that they will be able to share their knowledge among their peers and thus a fruitful outcome will be achieved in near future.

Objectives of the training

- Develop the knowledge level of gender diverse youth leaders on SRHR and CSE;
- Capacity strengthening of the participants on SRSH and CSE advocacy and communication;
- Produce an action plan with deliberate thinking and input by the participants.

Training Date: 27-28 July, 2018

Training Venue: Chelakotha, Lalmatia, Dhaka

About the Training

It was a two-days long training on SRHR and CSE rendered to ten young people. The young participants were selected from Bandhu's HIM initiative which is a platform for young male gender diverse people and from Possibility which is the platform for gender diverse girls and women.

Sessions of the training

1. Basic Sexuality Concepts
2. Sexual and Reproductive Health of Adolescents
3. Understanding Intersectionality
4. Sexual Abuse and impact analysis
5. Sexuality and Education
6. Sexuality, Employment and institutions
7. Making Change happen

Concept:

Md. Fosiul Ahsan, Director-Program

Developed by:

Nabakumar Dutta, Sr. Officer

Knowledge of Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights for Youth makes a happy generation

