

Award Ceremony of Essay Competition on SRHR issues 2017

Event at a Glance

Event: Award Ceremony 2017:
Essay Competition on SRHR
Date: 16.05.2017
Venue: Conference Room, Bandhu
Head Office

Bandhu Social Welfare Society organized an Award Ceremony on Essay competition at Conference room, Bandhu Head Office, Dhaka. A total of 25 Participants including Bandhu's Executive Director, Director-Program, Director-Finance & Administration, students, guardians were present in the event.

Essay competition on SRHR issues is the first initiative of Bandhu that it initiated last year. This is the second initiative and the key purpose is to encourage the knowledge enhancement on SRHR of adolescent and youth population who are aged between 15-24 years. The topics covered under this essay competition was:

- Personal Safety & Hygiene
- Physical & Mental Changes at Adolescent age
- Social & religious values & importance of knowing your body

Mr. Shale Ahmed, Executive Director, Bandhu shared a brief overview of the essay competition. He said, "Today's youth are future leaders". He encouraged participants to work as Ambassador and expand information regarding SRHR within their surroundings. Afterward, Ms. Rifat Afrin, Sr.Officer-Program, Bandhu declared the name of the winners. The winners are:

1. Sharif Hasan Bappy-Shahjalal University of Science and Technology (First place)
2. Md. Zahidul Islam-AIUB (Second Place)
3. Sheikh Hanan Ashrabi-BUP (Third Place)
4. Alvi Aveen Khan-Sunnydale (Third Place)

The program ended with comments from guardians and Md. Fosiul Ahsan, Director-Program and Md. Shahidul Alam, Director-Finance & Administration.

All the participants received certificates and souvenirs from Bandhu as a token of appreciation for participating Essay competition on SRHR 2017 and the top three winners received prize money as declared.

Event Supported by

Organized by